

In Gratitude

You the blazer of trail
You the seeker of more
You the splitter of rail
You the builder of yore

You the tiller of soil
An enricher of hearth
A greeter of toil
And provider of birth

You embracer of free
You maker of law
A designer of decree
And visionary of awe

You dealer in essence
You shunner of ease
Teaching never to wince
Nor never to appease

You dreamer of better
You embracer of quest
Our treasured ancestors
In our hearts you are blessed
