

Indiana's Roadside Stands

July Indiana Country roads become a treat
Blue Chicory waves to you and Lacy Queen Ann
As colorful a greeting as the folks you meet
Yet nothing likens to the roadside stand
Baskets of veggies with corn so sweet
Beside the scales and a money can

Under an umbrella or ten by ten tent
Sometimes tended most times not
Fresh veggies from the garden is sent
Tantalizing goods from a garden spot
The table filled with healthy content
Produce the soil and hoe hath wrought

Trust is basic to the front yard venture
Self-service part of the gardener's plan
The joy of being a road side vendor
Neighbors or strangers become a fan
Of the table of offerings san contender
Beside the scales and the money can
